The Tailoring Event of

$10

Get One While You

Never before in the history of Washington has a single tailor past two weeks. That shows what the public thinks of the value of the slightest impression on it. There are still thousands of overcoats and will dispose of before I move into my new building, at 611 14th Street, N.W. criminally. Replenish your wardrobe; you'll never have a better factory fit in any garment you order before I will accept your

Rain Coats FREE

With every order for a Suit or Overcoat costing $16 or over I will give a Slip-on Rain Coat absolutely FREE. There is no string of any sort attached to this offer. You get the full benefit of the sale prices and you get a fine Rain Coat that retails regularly at $7.50 to $10 absolutely free. I have your size waiting for you. Come and get it. This is probably the last week for this offer, as the supply is almost exhausted. Don't lose your chance.

Light, Medium, and Heavy-Weights, in every shade and pattern that the season has produced, including all the popular browns and grays, blues, blacks, and mixtures. The biggest collection of patterns in Washington. These Overcoats will be made up in the finest manner, just exactly the same as if you paid full price. I am putting fine Venetian linings in them, with satin in the sleeves; plain or silk velvet collars, as you like. Pick out your favorite shade and have it made up in whatever style you prefer. I offer you values such as you have never seen anywhere before, and I guarantee to please you in the fit.
